Sands of Time

(Music: Emanuel Cotty/Lyrics: Mario C. Rivera, Jay Rodriguez & Emanuel Cotty)

Coming to peace with the demons inside
Life is too short
Time will go on I will live on
Walking the way
Learning from pain in this journey called life
I will go far
Enslaved by my past a burden I can't endure

Feeling the walls closing in
There's no way out
Slave of the darkest path
Nowhere to run
Nowhere to hide
Slave of the darkest path

I could make one mistake
And make my fate go to hell

Look into my soul
And feel my emptiness
Now I know
I've been through this way too long

Drowned in my sea of pity and tears
Haunted by my broken dreams
Crying my life in misery
Holding on to my memories
Can't change the past, life passed me by
But I will survive
I know I can't control the sands of time

Black Haired Maiden

(Music: Emanuel Cotty/Lyrics: Jay Rodriguez & Emanuel Cotty)

All comes to place on this night
I see your face cold as ice
What they did to you all those years ago
Was wrong or so I thought
I can see all the pain inflicted on thee on that night
They will fall, they will suffer
It is you I've chosen to give me life
To bring this pain in this world

Follow the dark path before you
Follow withering wisps that guide
I can see the lair before my eyes
Something that life cannot deny
Kill the purest form of life
Lay drops of essence on the tomb
I must serve the darkest savior
Do her bidding on this night

See the blood drenched moon, Lifeless corpse takes shape
Look into her eyes, Feel the gaze of death

Rising flames before me, Skin not burnt by living fire
You are nothing but a pawn, the missing key to my destiny
I feel like a fool falling into your lies
Yes you will serve me for all eternity

It has come to this, the bloodied corpses cry
The world will meet its end; all shall fall to their knees

Pestilence will devour all
No mercy for none, all will suffer for me

Slaves of the dark one

Takes your soul, takes your mind
Kills everyone you know
Takes your soul, takes your mind
Kills everything you know

Black Haired Maiden!

Deceiving whore, putrid heart
Now I see through your wicked eyes
Darkened soul, I'm your slave

I am

(Music: Emanuel Cotty/Lyrics: Emanuel Cotty, Mario C. Rivera & Jay Rodriguez)

When I feel the pain
The grief, the sorrow comes
Knowing what I've done
The unbearable guilt of love
My soul wants what I do not
And my evil thoughts take control
My life kneeled before the Lord
I can't take control, I can't take control

I am in the corner of your soul
Burning flames and agony within
You put your fate in foolish deeds
Come before me you belong to me

I am your life
I'm your fears
I am fire
I am the lie
That you can't see
I am deceit
To kill your dreams

The time has come for me to arise
Make your worthless soul demise
All shall fall before my lies
I am here to steal your life
All mankind will serve my need
Fallen victims of my greed
If you want to see my face
Take your life and fall from grace

Feel the shadows burning inside
Branding your flesh and soul
Scaring your most intimate desires
Lie to yourself about not being part of it
Owned by the archetype
Society-controlled single-minded worthless
That's what you are... I am you!

Broken Soul

(Music/Lyrics: Emanuel Cotty)

Here I am my Lord, tired of the road
I've been forced to...to live my life without you

Here I am my Lord, longing rest for my soul
I come to you, hoping you're not gone

I have asked you, begged you
I've had prayed you, cried you
I wanted to hear your voice

Won't you even hear me? Won't you ever tell me?
Lies I've been told. Tell me, Why You hide?

I don't know why is this so tough?
And what I have done that's so wrong

You don't know what I've been through
Tell me now! Can't you hear me?

Oh Dear Father Lord now I come to you
Begging for mercy to finish this...

...Cross of blood I've spilled
No lives here to heal
My dying purpose left to believe

Won't you see me I descend?
Won't you hear me I'm in here?
Die to save to heal your kind
Desperate children heard your cry

Live not long to become lost
Live to loose all you've got
Die to save to heal your kind
Desperate children heard your cries

Inferno's Curse

(Music: Emanuel Cotty \ Lyrics: Emanuel Cotty & Jay Rodriguez)

In this life we are born
Weak slaves of the flesh
Spirit bounded by this haunted cage
We are born with a curse that rules our soul
We are born with a curse that rules our tombs

Heat consumes our flesh
As we live without a care
As we feel nothing awaits
With our lives in hell
We are born to believe
Nothing's wrong with this lair
We are born in a cage
That crows will take

In this life
We have a choice
We can live in peace
Or perish underworld

Inferno... Inferno's Curse

I can see your life in fear
Holding on to the light
Try to find the way to heaven
Inside you will burn
Go inside your soul is searching
Oh! The darkness reigns

I can see the life you're going
Trying to find all the light
Can't you see the darkness coming?
You tried to find the light
Go inside your soul is searching

When Angels Cry

(Music: Gregory Alvey \ Lyrics: Jay Rodriguez)

When I was a young boy
Looking at the stars
I wondered why the angels cry
They cry for you
They cry for me
And I know my time is short in this world

When the angel sheds his tears
He sheds them for you and me
Cries the tears of ages
Crying for you and me

Time is short my friend
We must repent
Judgment day is close
How can we make peace on earth?
We must take our friends and family
Inside us all

When the angel sheds his tears
He sheds it for you and me
Take my hand my friend
Follow me to heaven

When the angels cry
Hold my hand tonight

Fire in the Night

(Music: Emanuel Cotty & Gregory Alvey) Lyrics: Jay Rodriguez & Emanuel Cotty)

When I look into the sky I see the flames arise
All is burning on the darkest of nights
Saddle up your steeds, Wear the strongest steel
No time for fear my friend, for the enemy is at hand

Open the gates for hell awaits, hear the cry of war
Fight for freedom, Fight with all your might
For Glory awaits us all, as I look into the sky
I see the dragon's flame
I see all my armies cower in disdain

As the seer approaches me
He says the prophecy's complete
My kingdom will burn into ground

Fighting is all you see
Swords covered in blood
Battle cries in the east
Overwhelming us
We are lost and doomed
Not to see the light of day again
Courage is not to be found
In this crowd of men

When we feel that hope is lost
Look inside your hearts
Feel the warrior's spirit within
Take your sword into your hands
Swing across your enemies
Watch them fall onto the ground
Nothing's lost until we die
Fight for freedom's cause tonight
Watch your brothers' fall in war
Fight tonight the fire in the night
Fire in the night

Won't you see?
Death will take all my men
And I can't wait for you
Please Lord feel my pain
Please God hear my cry.

Confusion

(Music\Lyrics: Emanuel Cotty)

Flying through the clouds of pain
If I could only bear
This face of sadness that I wear
And wake up from this nightmare
Dreaming of you! Dreaming of you!
I could find you
In this world! In this world!

Lost in the shadows of your world
Full of hate and despair
Your heart is black as hell itself
And you can only be
The worst thing I fear!
A demon that I meet
Go away! You go away!

Confusion overwhelms my mind
I can't see I can't find
The path to break all this apart
And you are always there
You are always there!
Laughing as I stare.

My Judgment Day

(Music/Lyrics: Emanuel Cotty)

World of shadows paint these walls
Darkness prison of my love
I can't feel any pain
I live without regrets

Feel no sorrow anymore
Feel no soul, feeling lost
I am the bringer of sorrow
Inside I am hollow
I'm dictator
Eradicator
I will take you
To my hell!

Lord of shadows takes me to my
Dead end destiny
And as I travel to the lair
Of the dragon I will face

All these deeds, all this life
Through these eyes looking back
I can't lie, I can't deny
The things I've had, torn apart
If you hear me take my advice
Don't be fool, don't waste your life
You have a choice I no longer have
You have the chance to save your life

And I will say one more thing to you
I won't live again

There's no hope, it's my entire fault
And I can't go back
So father please forgive my sins
As I face my judgment day.

Betrayer

(Music: Emanuel Cotty/Lyrics: Emanuel Cotty, Mario C. Rivera & Jay Rodriguez)

I'm spitting back at you
Lies you told that made you a fool
Tried to deceive to gain some pride
Useless fool living a lie

What I see is a hollow shell
Feeling pity for yourself
So much anger so much hate
Hiding truth behind your face

Betrayer
I will make you pay
I will have my revenge
Time won't heal
Scars done by your lies
I will destroy your life

Searching for redemption
Laying on your knees
Begging me for mercy
But this time anger wins

I'm spitting back at you
Lies you told that made you a fool
Mask uncovered truth revealed
Your life, your lie is now clear

What I see is a hollow shell
No more pity, no more pain
So much anger so much hate
Lost in darkness that's your fate.
